

Welcome to UP / Unique Products, the creative endeavor of recycling artists Mark Kirk and Heather Macfarlane. Located in New Orleans since fall 1999, UP is an environmentally friendly retail gallery providing green themed home decor, accessories and lighting to a new and ever renewing New Orleans and beyond. Every item is individually designed and handmade by the artists .

UP is committed to eco education and helping bring sustainable ideas and designs to a city in the throws of rebirth since the environmental devastation of Hurricane Katrina, as well as helping their customers create a more socially responsible environment to live and work in.
